Therefore wait ye upon me, saith the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy..." (Zephaniah 3:8)

[Jhn 14:1-3 NASB20] 1 "Do not let your heart be troubled; believe in God, believe also in Me. 2 "In My Father's house are many rooms; if [that] were not [so,] I would have told you, because I am going [there] to prepare a place for you. 3 "And if I go and prepare a place for you, I am coming again and will take you to Myself, so that where I am, [there] you also will be.

"As truly as I live, the whole earth will be filled with the glory of Jehovah," Num. 14:21

"Then will I turn to the people a pure language, that they may all call upon the name of the LORD to serve him with one consent," Zeph. 3:9

"The LORD has made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our God." Isa. 52:10.

"Each should cultivate faith in his own heart: (a) By refreshing his memory continually with the Divine promises, becoming very familiar with these in the Father's Word. (b) He should seek more and more to remember that having made his covenant with the Lord these promises are his, and in his heart and with his lips he should claim them as his before the Lord in prayer with thanksgiving. He should claim them as his in his own thoughts, and in his conferences on holy things with the brethren. When trials or difficulties or perplexities arise, he should think of these promises, remembering that they belong to him—because God has promised them to such as love Him—who have made a covenant by self-sacrifice."
