I will sing to the LORD all my life; I will sing praise to my God as long as I live.”
Psalm 104:33
DEDICATION

The power of a thought is the seed of action.
The power of a spoken word is like a sprout, a visible sign of thought.
But the power of a song is a thought expressed aloud with rhythm, melody and emotion.

Singing to God is like eating the fruit.
We enjoy the taste.
We offer a piece of the fruit of praise to God, knowing He delights in this feast.
We are filled with energy. We are charged and ready to act for Him.
Praise is like feasting with God on song.

“So will I sing praise to Thy name forever;
that I may pay my vows day by day.”
Psalm 61:8 NASB

May these songs that we sing for God make us strong to fulfill our privileges and responsibilities in the adventure of our life with God and Christ.

We offer this book to you with gratitude to God and Christ for being a part of this feast of praise!

“I will sing to the LORD all my life;
I will sing praise to my God as long as I live.”
Psalm 104:33

Abide with Me, ’tis Eventide

1. Abide with me, ’tis even-tide! The day is past and gone;
   The shad-ows of the even-ing fall; The night is com-ing on!

2. Abide with me, ’tis even-tide! Thy walk to-day with me
   Has made my heart with-in me burn, As I com-muned with thee.

3. Abide with me, ’tis even-tide! And lone will be the night,
   If I can-not com-mune with thee, Nor find in thee my light.

O Sav-i-or, stay this night with me; Be-hold, ’tis even-tide!

Amazing Grace

John Newton wrote Amazing Grace because he marveled at the mercy and grace of God which had so dramatically changed him from the cruel and vicious life of a slave trader to a follower of Christ.

The Grace of God can reach the unreachable heart and produce a miracle of deliverance.

“For I am the least of the apostles, who am not fit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me did not prove vain…”

1 Corinthians 15:9-10
Armour of Faith

1. There is a victory to be won in every hour, there is an enemy and we dare not trust his pow'r.
   Yes, we have an armour and this armour keeps us safe. We hold the mighty Spirit sword and shield of our faith.

2. There is a long, long road and our weary steps seem slow.
   Sometimes we cannot see, but there's protection for the heart.
   Put on the armour now, and never be afraid.
   Use the sword, the Word of God, the promises he made.

3. There is an enemy and we dare not trust his pow'r.

Be Ye As Little Children

1. Be ye as little children now, in honor, love, and innocence.
2. Be ye as little children now, in meekness and humility.
3. Be ye as little children now, in faith and trust and honesty.
4. Be ye as little children now, in honor, love, and innocence.

Now trace the pattern carefully, in quietness and confidence.
The time is short for learning how, so live in all simplicity.
By seeking truth in all you do, you’ll be without hypocrisy.
Now trace the pattern carefully, in quietness and confidence.

And as the image there is drawn, the features soon appear,
And as we look back on our path, what hope and joy it brings,
And as you strive to be conformed, to the image of God’s Son.
And as the image there is drawn, the features soon appear,

The likeness of our Father’s shown, and grows year after year.
Each once was but a child of wrath, yet soon we’ll all be kings!
Then day by day you’ll be transformed, until the victory’s won.
The likeness of our Father’s shown, and grows year after year.

“I’ll catch you,” the father said.
Her father had lifted her to the top of the refrigerator. Swimming in his long tee shirt that reached almost to her feet, the three year old girl looked down into her father’s face.

“Promise?” her little voice asked.
“I promise,” said the father, “but wait until I tell you to jump...Ready, set, JUMP.”
And without hesitation, she jumped into his arms.

“In solemn truth I tell you that unless you turn and become like little children, you will in no case be admitted into the Kingdom of the Heavens. Whoever therefore shall humble himself as this young child, he it is who is superior to others in the Kingdom of the Heavens.” Matthew 18:3-4

When we turn from the spirit of pride to the wonder, and curiosity of a child and when we turn to a child’s trust in our Heavenly Father we open ourselves to experience God. When He asks us to jump, we can jump because we trust Him to catch us.
Blessed Assurance

1. Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine! Oh, what a foretaste of glory divine! Heir of salvation, purchase of God, Led of His spirit, washed in His love.

2. Perfect submission, perfect delight, Visions of rapture now burst on my sight; Angels descending, bring from above Echoes of mercy, whispers of love.

3. Perfect submission, all is at rest, I in my foretaste of glory divine! Heir of salvation, purchase of God, Led of His spirit, washed in His love.

A.S.A.P. Always Say a Prayer

“I have become absolutely convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither what happens today nor what may happen tomorrow, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation has any power to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord!”

Blowin’ in the Wind

Endless Love

2. The time we spend together is more valuable than gold.
3. And as we raise our voices to the praises of our God,
4. So as we search the future, and the present and the past;

I find a special place for you, and I hope to do my part.
We're writing books of memories that for future ages hold.
And looking out upon the earth in ways it may seem odd,
Let's learn the lessons written there to make our love to last.

To bring us all much closer to the one who really shows
Testaments of God's great love, for all mankind to see
That those who love the Lord like us are few and far between.
And helping one another is the perfect place to start,

A love that we can imitate as within our hearts it glows.
Written there upon our hearts in perfect harmony.
Yet some day soon their blindness gone, They'll see the things we've seen.
To lend a hand, or share a tear to heal the broken heart.

Chorus
He gave us all that he could give, his life for you and me.
A sacrifice that we might live, that mankind might be free.
And some day soon reality will replace the dreams of old.
As we into eternity his endless love unfolds.

Endless Song

1. My life flows on in endless song; above earth's lamentation,
2. What though my joys and comfort die! The Lord, my Savior liveth,
3. I lift mine eyes; the cloud grows thin; I see the blue above it;

I catch the sweet, not far-off hymn, that hails a New Creation.
What though the darkness gather round! Songs in the night he giveth.
And day by day this pathway smooths, since first I learned to love it.

Through all the tumult and the strife, I hear the music ringing;
No storm can shake my inmost calm, while to that refuge clinging;
The peace of Christ makes fresh my heart, a fountain ever springing;

It finds an echo in my soul how can I keep from singing.
Since Christ is Lord of heav'n and earth, how can I keep from singing.
All things are mine since I am his, how can I keep from singing.

But with the help of Christ he learned from his mistakes and became strong in his strength.

Chorus

Something happens and it causes you to think a thought. You think a thought, it causes you to feel a lot. Then your feelings fuel the passion that will create an action. It's the happen-think-feeling-action chain reaction.

Happening:

1. Jezzy sent a message to Elijah, “You are history.”
2. Thoughts of negativity can be a challenge to escape.
3. So when something happens and it causes you to think a thought.

Thought:

Li-jah thought “There’s no way out. I know she’s gonna snuff me.”
But God knew just how to help, He gave Elijah something great.
Call to mind that you can choose to think of good things you were taught.

Feeling:

Li-jah felt the clammy hand of fear constrict him to the bone.
Gave a mission to aoint two kings and then a prophet too.
Look for what your mission is, and all that God has done for you.

Action:

And he rose and ran away into the wilderness alone.
So Elisha took Elijah’s place, became his friend so true.
Helpful feelings lead to helpful actions - what is best to do.

In the Dawning

1. In the dawning, O Beloved, when earth's night of sin is past, Gone will be your tears and heart-aches, you shall see His face at last. Gone will be your tears and heart-aches, you shall see His face at last!

2. Now the world is filled with tumult, Satan seeks you for his own. Fear thou not, O dear Beloved, by your Savior you are known. Fear thou not, O dear Beloved, by your Savior you are known!

3. In the dawning, O Beloved, from your flesh you shall be free. Called and chosen, let's be faithful, that immortal we may be! Called and chosen, let's be faithful, that immortal we may be!

4. Let not doubts nor fears o'er take you, trust Him where you cannot trace. Put your hand within the Master's, in the dawn you'll see His face. Put your hand within the Master's, in the dawn you'll see His face!

In times like these, when the currents of evil are strong, we need an anchor to keep us from being swept away.
The question is: What will you attach your anchor to?

We are surrounded by the miracles of God.
Only the wisdom and power of God could have created the stars.
Only the wisdom and power of God could have hung the earth on nothing.
Only the wisdom and power of God could have created the laws that keep the universe in order.
But the most miraculous acts of God are the ones that involve the deliverance of His human creation.
It takes the miraculous ability of God to understand and love human beings that are smaller than an atom in comparison to the universe.
It took an act of supreme love for God to create us with the freedom to say ‘yes’ or ‘no’ to Him.
It took an act of supreme love to give us His only Son as our Savior.

He loves to act in your life.
Align yourself with His purposes and look for His miracles!

To many people this present order seems like it will float the currents of time forever.
But we know that the Titanic of the present evil world is ‘goin down.’
We also know that there is a ‘rescue mission’ that will deliver every man, woman and child from the ‘sinking ship.’

It's a long road to freedom, a winding steep and high.

But when you walk in love with the wind on your wing
And cover the earth with the songs you sing,
The miles fly by.

When all the waves reached out to me,
I bits of night still lingered on.
I prayed the day would never end.
The all my winters turned to spring.
Yet took their tears, then let them be.

Where do we find true freedom from the sting of winter’s experience?
In nature? In our friends?
Only Christ can turn our winters into spring.

The Lord of reality is the Lord of what is real, true, loving and eternal. And so He can be trusted.

Trusting in God does not mean life will be perfect and wonderful all the time but rather trusting in God gives us the confidence to handle the difficult times which are sure to come. Trusting God will not change your circumstances but it will change YOU. Trust that is rooted in an unshakable faith in God makes our confidence in His over ruling providences very REAL…only with trust can we remain confident and calm against overwhelming odds.

“Satisfy us in the morning with your unfailing love that we may sing for joy and be glad all our days.” Psalm 90:14

Meeting with God in the morning can transform our day.
Seeing His unfailing love in the beginning of our day equips us to meet the challenges of the day in the strength of that love.
A glimpse into His character and heart in the morning opens our hearts to sing a song of celebration and gratitude.

1. Bright stars are watching the world as it sleeps, Shepherds watch over the little white sheep, the lighthouse is shining for ships far at sea, As God keeps the night watch for you and for me. So sleep, sleep, in peace and rest. Don't be afraid of the darkness. All's well far over the land and the sea as God keeps the night watch for you and for me.

Paul Song

1. His name was Saul, and he did journey from Jerusalem; followers of the Lord did fear him. He is the right. He turned his life around to serve God with his might. Paul preachin’ one who let them kill our brother Stephen, and now he is in the city; Paul talkin’ all the way thru the night. A wild come to put us in prison. While he did journey, “Who is Paul anyway?”

"The will of God be done, and I must go."

So from across the sea, in Roman chains bound, he penned letters silently.

"O my son, Timothy, these walls are keepin' me from where I want to be. Will you be strong for me? Help all my brethren be followers faithfully?"

4. Lord, help me be like Paul, help me not let go what I know. Can I defy the cold? Help me not let go. For Your hand is there. I'll hold on and I'll dare to be like Paul. I'll bear the cold and snow. I won't let go. I won't let go.

Soldier of the Cross

1. We train through the day, we march through the night. We follow on the mountains and the hills and rocky ways. We follow through the day, we follow through the night.

2. Preparing by day, preparing by night. Preparing us to fight a battle, can't be seen by sight. Preparing through the day, we're preparing through the night. In trusting through the day, we're trusting through the night.

3. We're faithful by day, we're faithful through fear. We're faithful to our fellow soldiers, promising to be near. So when you battle hard, and when you battle cold, I'll see the coming joy. I see the coming day when I see the coming victory and the calming of all fear.

2. Stand up! Stand up for Jesus! Stand in his strength alone;

   With a heavy load from the seeds he's sowed,
   Lend a helping hand, instead of doubt;
   And if you see your sister fallen by the way,

He will never allow the righteous to be shaken.” Psalm 55:22

It takes effort to cast our burden on the Lord.
It is the effort of letting go:

trusting that when we let Him overrule the outcome,
it is better than our puny expectations.

“I will praise you, O LORD, among the nations;
I will sing of you among the peoples.
For great is your love, higher than the heavens;
Your faithfulness reaches to the skies.” Psalm 108:3-4
There is no truer friend than Jesus.
He is friend enough to bear your sin, share your sadness, listen to your thoughts and feelings, challenge you, be honest with you, strengthen you, and see the best in you even when you are not at your best.
He was friend enough to give his life so that you and your whole human family could have life.

Lord, help me to be friend enough to be his friend.

A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born to help in the difficult times.
Proverbs 17:17 (paraphrased)
Where Have All the Flowers Gone?

1. Where have all the flowers gone? Long time passing.
2. Where have all the young girls gone? Long time passing.
3. Where have all the young men gone? Long time passing.
4. Where have all the soldiers gone? Long time passing.
5. Where have all the graveyards gone? Long time passing.

Where have all the flowers gone? The girls have picked them every one.
Where have all the young girls gone? Gone to young men every one.
Where have all the young men gone? They are all in uniform.
Where have all the soldiers gone? Gone to graveyards every one.
Where have all the graveyards gone? Gone to flowers every one.

Oh, when will they ever learn? Oh, when will they ever learn?
Oh, when will they ever learn? Oh, when will they ever learn?
Oh, when will they ever learn? Oh, when will they ever learn?
Oh, when will they ever learn? Oh, when will they ever learn?

The permission of evil is a cycle of experience.
But God’s passion is to transform the hearts of man and to bring everlasting life and love out of the experiences of pain and death.

“Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past.
See, I am doing a new thing!
…I am making a way in the desert and streams in the wasteland.”
Isaiah 43:18-19
Whispering Hope

Like the faint dawn of the morning, like the sweet freshness of dew, comes the dear voice of Jesus, comforting, tender and true.

Sing the song of forgiveness, softly I hear in my soul, Jesus has conquered forever sin with its fear, giving way to the sunlight, darkness gives courage for warfare.

Hope is the anchor to keep us, holding both steadfast and sure; Hope brings a wonderful cleansing, through His blood, whispering hope of His coming, whispering hope of His coming.

Ten and making us pure, while His voice falls on my ear; seasons of heaven's refreshing call to new gladness and cheer.

While Thine ear when I pray; glorious, seasons of, O how I praise Thee today! how my heart thrills at His Word! seasons of, O how I praise Thee today!

Thee come and welcome the Lord! seasons of, O how I praise Thee today! seasons of, O how I praise Thee today!

Je - sus, thy love is sweet music to me.
Who Would Notice

1. Who would notice a kid in blue jeans? Who would notice the old and worn out seams?
2. He would notice when life seems to end. He would notice the times I walk alone.
3. He would notice the seeds that I have sown. He would notice the joy that's in my soul.

Jesus would notice a tiny grain of sand. Jesus would notice the harvest that I reap.
Jesus would care about a kid in blue jeans. Jesus would care about the old and worn out seams.

say.

There was a man in Jericho called Zaccheus.

Now the Hebrews, they were tall, but Zaccheus, he was small,

Yet the Lord loved Zaccheus, better than them all.

Zaccheus

1. The Lord went walking one day through Jericho town.
   And the people began to gather from miles away.
   But Zaccheus, he couldn't see, so he grew.
   "If I have cheated young and old, I remember a Sycamore tree.
   And the people began to sneer, "This store the goods four fold."

2. The Lord said, "Zaccheus, I am dining with you to show, That a man who is stout of heart can grow and round.
   Then, Zaccheus, he gave a cheer, but the way."

3. Now Zaccheus was small of stature, but he could come lead the show, These people do not hear?"
   "This man is a sinner, does the Lord seek lodging here?"
   "Zaccheus, come down."

Lord looked up and said, "Zaccheus, come down."
